

DONATION FORM

- To increase awareness of community issues, problems, opportunities, and successes to allow participants to nurture their ideas and talents as future leaders of Dale County.
 - To introduce the Dale County Youth Leadership Program participants to community leaders and decision makers.
 - To expand and develop their leadership skills, decision making capabilities, and communication skills through hands-on experiences.
 - To foster and develop an attitude of community service and participation through volunteer activities.
 - To assist youth in becoming more vested in Dale County in order to develop a lifelong commitment to their community.

Yes, I want to contribute to the development of these future leaders of our community.
